WEST COAST'S AUSPICIOUS CHINESE NEW YEAR FESTIVITIES

West Coast Town welcomed the Year of the Dog in the Chinese zodiac with colourful festive decorations depicting good health, wealth, success, and harmony in the community. The Dog, the eleventh of the 12 zodiac signs, is viewed as an auspicious animal. It is said that if a dog happens to come to a house, it symbolizes the coming of fortune. West Coast's red banners with auspicious couplets and decorative lanterns, currency coins, and the god of wealth added an upbeat note to the coming year!

We wish all residents a happy Chinese New Year, with an abundance of good health, wealth and harmony.

WHAT THE ZODIAC SAYS ABOUT PEOPLE BORN IN THE DOG YEAR

The year of the Dog starts from 16 Feb 2018 to 4 Feb 2019. The years under this zodiac sign include:

People born in the Year of the Dog are said to be independent, sincere, loyal and decisive according to Chinese zodiac. They face difficulties in daily life with a positive attitude, and generally enjoy harmonious relationships with people. They are also loyal, clever and responsible, but at times could be sensitive, stubborn and emotional.

SWIFT ACTION BY "FIRST RESPONDERS" HELPED MAN WHO COLLAPSED

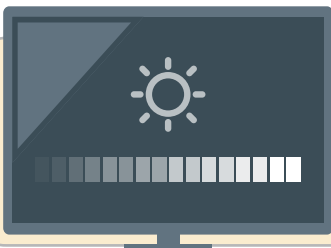

Swift action by these four "first responders" helped resuscitate a man at Jurong West Hawker Centre on 30 Oct 2017 at about 10.20pm. Their response revived the man who was then sent to hospital for further treatment. For their outstanding action the four men received the Community First Responder award from Singapore Civil Defence Force (SCDF). One of them, Mr Victor Yeo, a councillor of West Coast Town Council (third from right) said: "We happened to be at the centre and immediately performed first responder duties to resuscitate him. An ambulance arrived soon to send him to the Ng Teng Fong General Hospital."

ENERGY SAVING TIPS

Lighting

- Choose energy-saving lighting such as compact fluorescent lamps and LED bulbs. Avoid incandescent lamps.
- Use dimmers, timers or sensors to control the level and duration of lighting needed.
- Clean lamps and light fixtures regularly. Dust on lamps and reflectors reduces light transmission.
- Whenever possible, use natural light for your lighting needs.

Television

- Dim the light while watching television. This saves electricity while cutting glare from the screen.
- Always switch off your TV set-top box at the power socket as it consumes the highest standby power.
- Lower the brightness and contrast settings of your TV.

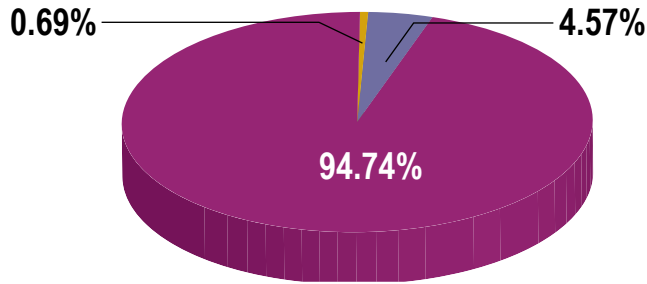

Standby Mode

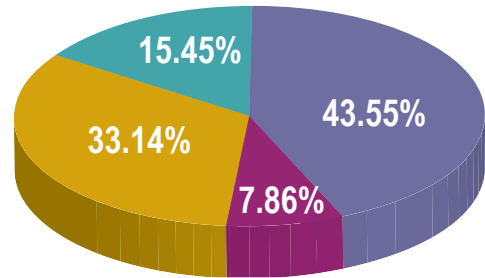

- Switch off your home appliances at the power socket when they are not in use. Standby power can account for up to 10% of your home energy use.

UPGRADED HEALTHCARE SERVICES FOR JURONG WEST RESIDENTS

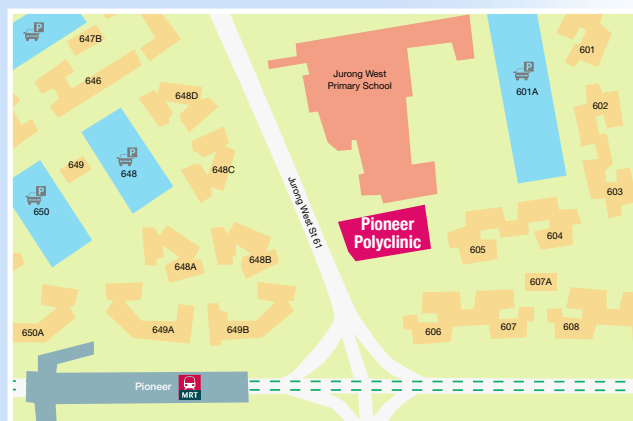

The Pioneer Polyclinic in Jurong West had its official opening on 27 January 2018, marking a new phase of quality and affordable healthcare services for residents.

With this new polyclinic, which started caring for patients in July 2017, residents now have more convenient access to quality, integrated and seamless care closer to their homes, said the Minister for Health, Mr Gan Kim Yong, who officially opened the facility.

"This is a key milestone in our journey to further strengthen our primary healthcare system to meet the care needs of Singaporeans. Pioneer Polyclinic is the first of six new polyclinics to be developed by 2020, under the Healthcare 2020 Masterplan," he said.

Since it started operations, the polyclinic has seen close to 700 patients on an average day, with a total of over 90,000 patient visits up to January 2018. It is conveniently located five minutes away from Pioneer MRT Station. Its specific multi-disciplinary care teams of family physicians, nurses and allied health professionals provide a wide range of services, including physiotherapy services. Patients with chronic conditions can benefit from the continuity of care as the teams can better monitor and manage their conditions, providing more seamless care.

Greetings,

I am Mr Goh from Block 692 Jurong West Central 1. I would like to compliment Fatimah from West Coast Town Council as she takes every complaint seriously and accede to my request quickly and without delay. There are instances where workers left trailer chassis outside my house and I called to feedback about the health issues it has on my family. The next day, everything was shifted away. This is not the first time she acceded to my request this fast. I would like to compliment on her professionalism and services.

This is a 'Thank you' note to express my appreciation to West Coast Town Council, especially to Aileen from Clementi Branch and migrant helpers for their assistance in the removal of bulky items. I am blessed to have a responsible and competent town council who takes care of its residents. Blessed Christmas and happy holidays!
